EVENT ORGANISER RESOURCES

Speaker introduction

Jenny Williams | Keynote speaker on leading through uncertainty

Host script

FULL INTRODUCTION

Today's speaker challenges one of the most deeply held assumptions about leadership, that good leaders should always appear certain.

Jenny Williams is a keynote speaker, ICF Master Certified Coach and author of the #1 Amazon bestseller Brilliant Doubt.

Drawing on more than 5,000 hours coaching senior leaders across organisations including the Ministry of Justice, Monzo and Google, Jenny explores how we can think, decide and act when certainty simply isn't available.

Please welcome Jenny Williams.

SHORT INTRODUCTION

Jenny Williams is a keynote speaker, executive coach and author of the #1 Amazon bestseller Brilliant Doubt.

Her work challenges the idea that good leaders should always appear certain and explores how doubt can become a source of better thinking, better decisions and better leadership.

Please welcome Jenny Williams.

Booking details

AVAILABLE FOR

Keynote speeches, leadership conferences, executive events, HR and L&D events, International Women's Day, international events and virtual audiences.

FORMATS

A 30 to 60 minute keynote, keynote plus Q&A, or a keynote combined with a deeper leadership workshop.

IN PERSON AND VIRTUAL

Jenny speaks in person in the UK and internationally, and can also deliver virtual keynotes for global or distributed audiences.

BEFORE THE EVENT

Jenny works with clients before an event to understand the context, the challenges leaders are facing and what the audience needs to think, feel or do differently when they leave.

Enquiries

Talk to Jenny about your audience, the challenge they are facing and what you want them to leave thinking, feeling and doing differently.

jennywilliamscoaching.co.uk/keynote-speaking/